CELEBRATING ‘BLUES IN DA BAY’

Sharing the love of music & helping children

The first annual Blues in Da Bay on Saturday drew a sizable crowd to the city’s historic Train Depot grounds, and shared the love of music with great performances by a variety of artists, and also by helping raise funds to buy band instruments for local students.

“I’m very pleased with how everything went,” event organizer Frank Strong said. “When we first started talking about this, we said that we’d be happy if 200-300 people showed up, and we definitely exceeded that. We had about 750 attend, I believe.”

In addition, Strong said, the event met its fundraising goal.

Days of Plunder: Pirate Day in the Bay begins Friday

SEA COAST ECHO

The Mystic Krewe of the Seahorse is gearing up to take over Old Town Bay St. Louis again this weekend for the eighth annual “Pirate Day in the Bay,” as well as the Hancock Historical Society’s third annual Cardboard Boat Race.

Event organizers said last years festival set a new attendance record.

This festival, named a Top Twenty Event by the Southeast Tourism Society and Mississippi Magazine’s 2021 Spring Festival M-List winner and 2022 Best of Travel Awards, draws 5,000-plus locals and visitors from across fifty states and Canada.

Pirate Day in the Bay begins this Friday, May 19.

The weekend will be packed with music, family/kid-friendly activities, and a few adult-only events. Krewe members will be in full pirate attire, and visitors are encouraged to wear their pirate best to celebrate the Bay’s pirate history, dating back over 200 years.

Healing continues after mass shooting

BY GEOFF BELCHER
GENERAL MANAGER

The mourning and healing continue in Hancock County nearly three weeks after a mass shooting at a Bay St. Louis after-prom party claimed the lives of two local teen-agers and wounded four others.

Funeral services were held in Slidell on Saturday for De’Arreis Smith, an 18-year-old Pearl-ington native. Haeleigh Stamper, 16, was laid to rest the previous Saturday at a service at Bayou Talla Fellowship in Kiln.

Six people between the ages of 15 and 18 were shot a little after midnight on April 30 at a house party in Bay St. Louis, and police quickly arrested 19-year-old Pass Christian resident Cameron Everest Brand in the case.

Lauren Lawless, 16, was one of the wounded. She suffered two broken ribs and nerve damage in her left leg and spent four days in intensive care.

BHS student arrested after shotgun found in vehicle

ECHO STAFF

School resource deputies with the Hancock County Sheriff’s office on Thursday located a shotgun in a student’s vehicle at Bay High School.

According to a release from the sheriff’s office, there was no incident and authorities believe there was no intent to cause harm, however, “Mississippi state law has a zero tolerance for weapons on educational property.”

Authorities identified the student as 18-year-old Brayson Adam Johnson of Bay St. Louis and he was charged with possession of a weapon on educational property.

“We have to be mindful of the fact that possession of deadly weapons on school property is illegal, regardless of one’s intent to do harm,” Hancock County Sheriff Ricky Adam said in a press release. “Parents should be having conversations with their teenage children, especially those that are hunters, reminding them of the importance of gun safety and the need to keep weapons safely secured at home and off of school property.”

Drug bust in Kiln nets 8 suspects, narcotics and stolen property

SEA COAST ECHO

Narcotics Agents and Criminal Investigators of the Hancock County Sheriff’s Office on Wednesday executed a search warrant at a residence located at Christine Ladner Road in Kiln, arresting eight people and seizing a cache of drugs and stolen property.

“The search warrant was obtained after a thorough investigation into the illegal drug activity taking place at the residence,” Sheriff Ricky Adam said in a press release Thursday. “During the investigation, it was also determined that there was stolen property at the residence.

“Upon execution of the search warrant, agents and investigators located felony and misdemeanor amounts of illegal drugs, particularly methamphetamine, fentanyl, buprenorphine, and hydrocodone, assorted drug paraphernalia, as well as a large amount of stolen property was recovered.”

Officers arrested multiple people on several charges at the residence, including:

- Terrell Joseph Ladner, 68, Kiln (Homeowner) – Arrested and charged with felony Possession of a Controlled Substance with Intent to Distribute and misdemeanor Possession of a Controlled Substance.
- Angela Marie Chauvin, 39, Pass Christian – Arrested and charged with two felony counts the Waveland Police Department, who was one of the many officers who responded to the scene, helped tend to Lauren and made sure she got the medical attention she needed.

Last Thursday, Bordelon visited her during a WLOX interview.

“They were both nervous (Troy doesn’t like the attention, and that big camera was pretty intimidating for Lauren),” Bordelon’s wife Shanna wrote on Facebook, “but they took comfort in holding hands and having a pep talk with each other before the cameras rolled. Troy brought Lauren a matching Back the Blue bracelet, and she immediately put it on with pride. It was so incredibly sweet. Pretty sure I silently cried the entire time. The way she looked at him just melted my heart completely; it literally brings tears to my eyes as I type this.”

She praised Lauren for her strength, resilience and positive outlook.

Shanna wrote that she didn’t mean for her post to be seen by so many people, “But I’m so glad it shined a light on law enforcement that most don’t see or think about. They’re just as human as the rest of us. They don’t leave work behind when they walk through the door at home & take the uniform & badge off. They carry the heavy things they see with them. They leave their families not knowing if they’ll return back home. They share a bond that most don’t understand.

“Waveland, Bay St Louis and Hancock County have a relationship I’ve never seen in law enforcement. Because the two cities are small, when something happens in BSL, Waveland and the County show up without hesitation- and vice-versa. They work together closely and often eat together and/or share in each others personal lives. On this particular night, they all responded. They ALL worked on these kids, doing all they could to make sure they got home to their parents.”

Brand remains incarcerated at the Hancock County Justice Facility without bond, charged with two counts of murder and four counts of aggravated assault — manifesting extreme indifference to human life.

A court date in the case has been scheduled in Bay St. Louis Municipal Court on June 16.

HCLS readies for 2023 Summer Library Program

SEA COAST ECHO

The Hancock County Library System (HCLS) wants families to know that it's not too soon to be "Thinking Summer." The HCLS 2023 Summer Library Program begins in May with programming spanning the months through July. "We used to be known as the Summer Reading Program," said Kathleen Buck, youth services coordinator for the HCLS's Diamondhead/East Hancock location. "But there's so much more than books!"

commodate this.”

The Summer Library Program (SLP) has organized activities by age group beginning with Early Readers, ages 5 and under. Reading challenges that offer prizes by collecting tickets for maintaining a reading log are also available under a Children's Category (ages 6 through 11), Teens (ages 12 through 17), and Adults (18 years and above).

The 2023 Summer Library Program begins registration this week and continues with open registration throughout the summer. But persons wanting to enjoy the full range of experiencing all of the programs and activities planned should contact their local library branch now to register and enroll in the program (using the library's beanstack app). SLP requires only that participants have an active library card with the HCLS. There is no cost to sign up.

Other highlights of this year's Summer Library Program included family movies, a model railroad presentation, musical presentations, teen origami, jewelry making, STEM and science programs featuring hedgehogs, snakes, tortoise and hissing cockroaches! And, oh yes, Books!

For other details and additional information people can visit the HCLS website at: <https://hcls.info/summer-library-program> so that we could at least sponsor one child in band, a first-year band student in middle school,” Strong said. “We think that’s the key right there, trying to reach as many children as we can when they first get in band, and trying to make sure they stay in band.”

Strong said his son was a band major in college, and started when he was in middle school.

“I remember the first day that he came to me and told me how much an instrument was going to cost,” Strong said. “Whenever we first started talking about wanting to do the Blues festival, I wanted to have a mission behind it, as well.”

and Ghalia Volt. Members of the Bay-Wave-land High School Jazz band also performed during the breaks between featured artists.

Also during the event Saturday, Scott Albert Johnson gave free harmonica lessons to third-, fourth- and fifth-graders.

Blues in Da Bay also featured about 30 vendor booths, with people from all over the Gulf South offering a variety of arts, crafts, food and more.

“All of the vendors were happy with the organization and coordination (of the event),” Strong said. “The musicians were all happy — two or three of them told me it was the best festival they ever played at, just because of the sound quality and the general atmosphere.”

“All of the volunteers were happy. We received numerous positive comments throughout the festival.”

Strong said he initially hoped to have the festival in April, so it wouldn't be so close to the Pirate Day in the Bay celebration, “but when I reached out to some of the musicians, they said

‘the problem you’re going to encounter is that most of the Blues enthusiasts are already going to be at the Juke Joint Festival in Clarksdale or Jazz Fest (in New Orleans), so I had to move it to Second Saturday in May.’

Strong said the group plans to host Blues in Bay again next year, and will have other events coming up throughout the year to help raise funds for band instruments, such as a 5K run.

Blues In Da Bay is a non-profit whose mission is to provide financial assistance to first year band students toward leasing or purchasing musical instruments in addition to promoting community interest in blues music.

According to the group’s mission statement, “Our vision is to help ensure every prospective band student throughout Hancock County has access to a musical instrument by helping to reduce the financial burdens toward leasing or purchasing costs.”

Flag Retirement Program

Edmond Fahey Funeral Home works with local residents and the veterans services organizations to properly retire any U.S. flag that has reached the end of its service.

Our program is designed to honor our national heroes, our military veterans, and to give dignity to our American Flag when it is no longer worthy of display.

We strive to see that each veteran being cremated has a flag. There is no charge for this service to our veterans.

According to the United States code, Title 4, Chapter 1, Subsection 8: "The flag, when it is in such condition that it is no longer a fitting emblem for display, should be destroyed in a dignified way, preferably by burning."

If you would like to honor a deceased veteran by donating an aged or worn flag to be properly disposed of, you may do so by delivering the flags to our funeral home located on the corner of Necaise Avenue and Main Street.

A Hometown Star

There are so many days that the news business can be full of doom and gloom.

It definitely can affect one’s mental health. It has affected mine more times than I can count.

However, there are so many bright moments in the news industry and one of those is our own hometown star, Jerry West.

Soon after I started working for the Sea Coast Echo many moons ago, I met Jerry.

He usually comes by to have his photograph taken or alert us to a community event where he will be volunteering.

One such time, he called the office and I answered the phone. He asked if someone would come take a photograph at a blood drive hosted by St. Stanislaus.

I went down there and, what should have been about a five-to-ten-minute photo opportunity took much longer, because somehow he had persuaded me to donate blood. I still don’t know how it happened.

As a side note, I’m always happy to donate blood when I can. When I was a teenager, my dad required a life-saving blood transfusion, so I always donate when possible.

That memory still makes me smile.

Throughout my years here, he has become a familiar figure, a whirlwind of excitement when he comes through the door.

On Monday morning, he called me to make sure someone would be at the office to take his picture, as he had won a medal over the weekend at the Special Olympics held at Keesler Air Force Base.

His phone calls always put a smile on my face and I looked forward to hearing about his big win.

He won a first-place medal in golf.

Not long after I took his photo, I posted it on the Echo’s Facebook page, as I’ve done before, and within minutes, there were many, many, many likes and comments.

It only goes to prove my point that Jerry West is one of Hancock County’s most beloved citizens.

Not only does he bring home the medals from Special Olympics, he is also a steady fixture at OLG’s Crab Fest and events sponsored by the Waveland Civic Association. This is just to name a few — and I know I haven’t done it justice — of the

Hancock History: Smith/Anderson Family of Sellers

Linda Gayle Anderson Buckley (b.1952) is the younger sister of Lloyd Anderson. Lloyd was introduced in our last column as a tenth-generation descendant of one of the original pioneer settlers of Sellers, Nimrod Smith. Linda graduated from Hancock North Central High School also. She married in 1969 and had four children. Later in 1988, she married a man from Lawrence County, MS, Kenneth Buckley. Linda was a police officer in Bay St. Louis for several years in the 1980’s. She worked under Chief Ray Murphy and enjoyed the mission of helping people, especially battered women. Linda later worked as a Transportation Security Administration (TSA) supervisor at the Gulfport-Biloxi airport. She has four children: Shannon, Callie, Lynn, and Sherman. Inspired by his uncle Lloyd’s entrepreneurial spirit, Sherman started his own business, DMR Industrial in Wiggins, MS.

The father of Lloyd and Linda was Winfred Lloyd Anderson (1917-1956). Winfred served in the army in the Pacific Campaign of World War II and saw combat in Guadalcanal, the Solomon Islands, and the Philippines. He worked at Ingalls Shipyard and started a dairy farm in Sellers. His wife was Nora Lee Bosarge (1927-2012) from Bayou La Batre in Monroe County, Alabama. Wilfred and Nora met at a bus station in Gulfport.

Two veterans from Sellers who lost their lives in World War II were Elgin Dedeaux and Burnett Wallace “Buster” Anderson. The names of these patriots are inscribed on the World War II Memorial in front of the Hancock County Courthouse in Bay St. Louis. Another local veteran, Monroe Shaw died in the Korean War.

A grandfather of Lloyd and Linda was Olen Lacar Anderson (1879-1964), who was from Lamar County, MS., but he resided in Crane Creek. Olen was a leather worker who fashioned whips and reigns for oxen yokes and wagons. His leather reigns were in great demand by the timber companies because they used oxen and mules to haul heavy tree trunks out of the forest. Owen was famous because he was the only driver in the county that could harness or manage with his yokes eighteen teams of oxen (thirty-six oxen) at one

21 LIBRARY

When someone asks about the Hancock County Library System, our usual response includes a listing of the locations of the five (5) individual library branches located in the five communities throughout the county. This includes Bay St. Louis, Diamondhead, Kiln, Pearlinton and Waveland. But in the 21st century, libraries throughout the world truly have one more “branch” that completes their “presence.” The Internet. All libraries exist now in a virtual world in addition to the places made of bricks and mortar that people are accustomed to.

For many years – decades, even – public libraries have offered a place where computers are available and access to the world wide web is free. COVID, however, accelerated the need for libraries to do more to elevate a broader awareness – and use of – the resources which libraries have that people can access ... usually, at no or very little cost. When many libraries closed their doors or restricted in-person access during the pandemic it became necessary to promote other ways – in some cases new ways – for libraries to offer services to the public. Libraries continued to provide a broad range of services, and books morphed into “no touch” experiences ... becoming more and more a virtual past-time (reading through eBooks and audio books). Virtual “author talks” became a regular (online) event. And people began to learn how to access their library from home using tablets, smart phones and other personal computers. Locally, when it comes to the number and range of programs and services that are available virtually, the Hancock County Library System (HCLS) – as smaller libraries systems go – might just be one of the most generous, progressive, and ambitious library systems around. When searching online, begin with the HCLS website: <https://hcls.info>.

All it takes is a library card – free to area residents – and you can access services available through HCLS such as kanopy, at no cost, which offers video and film streaming and a collection of more than 30,000 movies, TV series, and content for kids.

The kanopy app is just one of many resources that is available through the Overdrive online services that the HCLS subscribes to. Much like Netflix which in contrast is a paid service, kanopy can be used with mobile devices including smart phones, tablets, or with your television.

Closer aligned to traditional print media, Libby, an app that’s been popular with readers for several years, offers both eBooks and audio books – many titles available in both versions. Patrons will find titles from the classics to new releases in both fiction and non-fiction areas. Recent titles include John Grisham’s novel The Boys from Biloxi, Dolly Par-ton's collaboration with James Patterson – Run, Rose Run, Prince Harry's Spare, and Delia Owens' mega-selling Where the Crawdads Sing.

The HCLS recently added a subscription service to NewsBank a database of newspapers with more than 12,000 searchable titles – including The Wall Street Journal and New York Times. The NewsBank archives also offers blogs, newswires, videos, and more. Additionally, as was reported last month, the archives of the Sea Coast Echo is now also available for searching online. An extensive database of publications also includes magazines and comics geared to kids and teens.

The newest collection of materials through the HCLS includes Child Advocacy resources and books through the CASA CARES partnership that the HCLS launched earlier in May with CASA – Court Appointed Special Advocates for children. And ramping up for its summer library program, the libraries five branches are offering a full range of children's and "Tween's & Teen's" materials coupled with a variety of reading challenges using another er app, Beanstack, that takes advantage of new but user friendly technology and also builds in awards and prizes once participating young people complete activities and reach certain goals and benchmarks. The summer library program (SLP) launches in mid-May.

Year-round, the HCLS offers many on-line resources geared to students. In addition to online “live time” course specific tutoring that is currently offered from 2:00 PM until 11:00 PM – again at no cost to library patrons – there is a diagnostic test center with customized study plans, lessons, and more live tutoring; writing labs; language labs for language learners; the Skill Surfer that helps build skills through practice lessons, videos, tests and more tutors; and, FlashBulb™ an online service that uses flashcards, tests and games ("edu-tainment").

For college and high schoolers, the eParachute program helps match careers to college major areas using skills and interest surveys. The MEET™ program provides for online group sessions (like study groups) with friends hosted in a virtual private study room. Brainwave™ allows users to create and share movie-like notes and ideas.

So you see, the library of the present is very different – and offers far more through its online, virtual services – than what most people associate with the traditional library. We still offer all of the programs, services, and resources that libraries are known for. But, unless you've been to the library recently ... and, this means by using your computer, tablet, smart phone or other mobile devices ... you're likely missing out on a whole new world of what the library has to offer!

BROTHER CELESTINE ALGERO, S.C.
Brother Celestine Algero, S.C., 91, a resident of Baton Rouge, LA, since the summer of 2022, died at St. Joseph Hospice in River Ridge, LA, on May 1, 2023, at 3:00 PM.
Brother Celestine (Cele), son of the late Arthur Algero and Lucille Chartier, both of New Orleans, was a native of New Orleans, LA. He joined the Brothers of the Sacred Heart as a prenovice in Metuchen, NJ, on December 10, 1950 and became a novice there on August 14, 1951. He professed his first vows on August 15, 1952, in Metuchen, and later made his perpetual profession at the Brothers’ chapel at Saint Stanislaus in Bay St. Louis, MS, on June 13, 1958. Recognized as a scholar early in his career, Cele earned a Bachelor’s degree in Business Education and Spanish from Spring Hill College in Mobile, AL, in 1958; a Master’s degree in Administration and Supervision from Loyola University in New Orleans, LA, in 1962; and a Doctorate in the Psychology of Reading from Temple University in Philadelphia, PA, in 1975. Brother Celestine had a distinguished career in the field of education which spanned 68 years. He served as a high school teacher, assistant principal, supervisor of instruction, principal and president at several Brothers’ schools, including Saint Stanislaus in Bay St. Louis, MS; Cor Jesu High School in New Orleans, LA; Brother Martin High School in New Orleans, LA; and McGill-Toolen High School in Mobile, AL. Cele made a major contribution at the collegiate level, also, accepting responsibilities as an associate professor, professor and chair of the Education Department at Spring Hill College in Mobile, AL. Seeking to further contribute to the educational conversation, this educator, par excellence, became a consultant at the local, regional and national levels, offering his advice and insights to many schools, Dioceses, and Archdioceses, as well as to such accrediting agencies as the NCEA, the SACS and AdvancED. Until his final illness in March 2023, this passionate educator was working with new faculty members at Catholic High School in Baton Rouge, LA – at 91 years of age! Aside from his educational career, Brother Celestine sought to use his gifts of time, energy and talent to be of service to his Brothers and to those who were less fortunate. Cele had a loving concern for the elderly and infirm, and he went to great lengths to prepare meals for our oldest French confrère, Brother Aurelian, and daily visited his classmate, Brother Matthias, in the nursing home. His passion for social justice was expressed particularly in his outreach to and support of Pure Heart of Mary School, and he generously assisted at St. Joan of Arc Parish, both in Mobile, AL.

Brother Celestine was preceded in death by his parents, five of his six siblings, including, his sister Elva (Leo) Jewan-is; Michael (Josephine) Algero; Kermit Algero; and Claudette Algero.
He is survived by his sister, Donna McKeel (J. Thomas), and numerous nieces and nephews.
The consummate teacher, Brother Celestine donated his body for the furthering of science. So, we will hold no funeral at this time. However, a Memorial Mass and dinner celebrating Brother Cele’s life and ministry will be held this summer when we will appropriately remember and celebrate our Brother. Donations in honor of Brother Celestine’s memory can be made to the Brothers of the Sacred Heart Foundation (4600 Elysian Fields Ave., New Orleans, LA 70122).
Edmond Fahey Funeral Home is honored to serve the family of Brother Celestine Algero, S.C.

Health Foundation — said Tuesday. “All I heard was it would have a minimal effect on the hospital.”
Ochsner CEO Pete November announced in a message to staff company-wide on Thursday that management was preparing to layoff 770 employees in Louisiana and Mississippi, which represented about two percent of the team.
November said the layoffs would not affect doctors, nurses “and other patient-facing staff,” but would focus primarily on management, administrative and clerical positions.
He cited increased labor costs, a nationwide shortage of patient care clinicians, a weak economy and high inflation as the main reason for the layoffs.
“For some time, we have all been working hard to address our financial and workforce challenges,” November said in the message. “We are not alone in this: healthcare providers across the country have experienced increased labor costs, a shortage of patient care clinicians, high inflation and the end of pandemic relief funding from the government.”
November also said that “any impacted employees with active clinical credentials will be offered direct patient care roles.”
“We are not sharing additional details about the roles impacted by this reduction,” an Ochsner spokesperson said in response to Sea Coast Echo questions on Tuesday. “What we can share is that impacted positions are management and primarily non-direct patient care roles. No physicians are impacted by this reduction. We are reaching out to impacted employees to connect them with other roles within the system, and those with active clinical credentials stepping into full-time, frontline clinical roles will be offered a generous incentive package.

“This absolutely will not impact our ability to deliver high-quality care at Ochsner Medical Center - Hancock. Our patients and communities can continue to depend on us for the excellent, compassionate care they expect from Ochsner.”
“I did talk to a long-time employee of the OR (at Ochsner Medical - Hancock) and she told me the cases are increasing down there, but it’s on an out-patient basis,” Trapani said. “It looks like they’re operating the ER as a clinic and the OR as an out-patient clinic.”
While the layoffs should not affect the local level of service, Trapani said, it is important for Ochsner to continue to operate the hospital in the best manner possible and for the community to support it.
“We can’t have a community if we don’t have a hospital,” Trapani said. “It’s in everybody’s best interest to keep this hospital open, because nobody will move here if we don’t have a hospital.”

hunt. They are challenging all residents and visitors to “shop small” in the downtown area and search for the picture of Captain Longbeard and Lady Claiborne displayed in the participating businesses. Shoppers must scan the QR Code and register their visit. The person who checks in (via the QR Code) the most participating businesses will qualify for the winning prize of an overnight stay at the Pearl Hotel and a $100 gift certificate for dinner at Cuz’s Old Town Oyster Bar & Grill. The scavenger hunt began April 21 and runs through May 21.
The festival kicks off Friday, May 19th at 4 p.m., when pirates officially arrive in Bay St. Louis and begin meandering their way through Old Town with an adult pub-crawl and scavenger hunt throughout local eateries and establishments. This adults-only event requires a ticket, which can be purchased in advance or at Pirate Central that day. All ages are welcome to enjoy free live music by Retro 7-11 p.m.

Grab a coffee or bottled water and catch the third annual cardboard boat races Saturday morning from 9 a.m. – noon. The pirates have teamed up with the Hancock County Historical Society to incorporate this fun family event into their Pirate Day in the Bay festival. The Historical Society is challenging all cities, municipalities, schools, organizations, individuals, or groups to get creative and build a cardboard boat per specifications and come “float your boat”, off the beach adjacent to the BSL harbor. There are several prize categories and there is plenty of room for spectators along the pier overlooking the starting line. To register a cardboard boat, and see rules and instruction tips, go to www.hancock-countyhistoricalsociety.com.
Mid-morning Saturday join in or be an active spectator for the family-friendly Lil’ Buccaneers’ Parade at 11 a.m. Kids can also enjoy the pirate play zone, also open 11 a.m. until 7 p.m. (small fee required for entrance). The popular pirate costume contest is scheduled for noon with an overall adult male and female winner named, as well as the top three winners in several children’s age groups.

Also on Saturday, shop the craft vendors and enjoy entertainment all day at Pirate Central. See the ever-popular belly dance troupe from Pandorium Belly Dance Company followed by the Pirate Invasion Parade and ROMC dance performers at 5 p.m. After the parade enjoy live entertainment featuring a New Orleans favorite, “The Topcats”, from 7-11 p.m. and a Grand Finale Fireworks Display over the harbor at 9 p.m.
Although many of the events of this weekend are free, the weekend festival is an annual fundraiser for the Mystic Krewe of the Seahorse, a volunteer organization that promotes economic development in Hancock County.
Pirate Day in the Bay is sponsored by Silver Slipper Casino, ABC Rental, Bayou Caddy Utility South, and Rosetti’s Liquor Barrel.
Full details and the event schedule can be found on the website www.MKOTSH.com.

Integrity

By REV. C. GERALD RICHARDSON, D. MIN

C. Gerald Richardson, D. MIN.

I have been reading a book entitled “The Winners” by Fredrik Backman. He is a well-published author who has an unusual writing style. He writes a great deal about Hockey, and the way many people, especially those who live in the far North, are so committed to it.

Of course, one of the realities of being overwhelmed by the power of any sport is that, for some people, the game becomes equivalent with life. Everything seems to depend upon the success of the team. When the team is riding high, the world looks beautiful. When the team is struggling and failing to perform in expected ways, the whole of life is impacted.

Two things almost always happen when things begin to go wrong on a popular sports team. One is that the entire community becomes enveloped in a state of deep depression. The other is that people start to look for somebody to blame. That usually falls to either the coach or a star player who seems not to be performing according to expectations. Sometimes it is both.

This is an important metaphor for life. It holds a profoundly spiritual context. It is almost always closely connected to the notion of integrity. The discussion raises some important questions. Among them are:

What role does winning play in life? One famous coach in the U.S. was quoted as saying, “Winning is not the main thing; it is the only thing.”

To what lengths are we willing to go in order to win?

Does the way you win matter, or just that you get the win?

These are critical considerations, and they lead to important indicators about human character.

In the Backman book referenced above the following quote caught my eye. “Integrity is about who you are.....prestige is about what other people think of you.” Sadly, it is far too easy to get the two confused. It can be a healthy spiritual exercise to try to evaluate our lives in light of those two terms.

Most of us enjoy being thought of in a positive way. Of course, nobody can really know the interior of the human soul, but actions and attitudes usually offer strong clues as to the essence of people. It has sometimes been said that looking at a person’s checkbook would reveal a great deal about the character of the person. We usually spend our treasure on that which we value. If we do not spend it on anything, but hoard it, that is a good indication that our value is probably the treasure itself.

It is true that persons of prestige can also be persons of integrity. That is a noble goal. It is most often achieved when integrity takes the priority, and the prestige flows out of a life well-lived. Reflecting on a life of integrity is a worthwhile exercise which can lead to a more whole and meaningful life.

MEET

SANDLOT.

After being abandoned on a dead end road with his food bowl, this amazing boy was discovered by a Good Samaritan.

He has a super gentle demeanor and a wonderful disposition towards humans. And what a handsome fella this 2 year old Great Pyrenees mix is! Sandlot would be an awesome companion for an individual, couple or family where at least one family member works from home or is retired. He absolutely loves people, and desires to be in their company. He is most definitely BFF material! Sandlot's foster home doesn't include small children, but he has an easy going personality that may be indicative that he'd be compatible and sweet with kids. He is non reactive to his foster mom's cats, and is playful and friendly with dogs of both genders and of various sizes and temperaments. This mellow dude will make your life complete. If you have any questions about Sandlot, or would like to meet him, please call our front desk at 228-466-4516.

islaus Rock-A-Chaws only had six entries in the state meet but made them count as they finished fourth overall with 43 points out of 27 scoring teams. Tylertown repeated as Class 3A boys champions with 119 points. OLA had just three entries but scored 18 points to finish 13th out of 28 scoring teams. Alcorn Central won the Class 3A girls title with 109 points.

The Rocks were led by state champion Ilias Rida who won the shot put with a throw of 43' 5". Bret Tyler brought home a silver medal finishing second in the discus with a throw of 124' 7". Micah Bishop brought home two medals finishing second in the 110m hurdles with a time of 14.99 and third in the 400m dash with a time of 52.28. Chandler Chapman was third in the 110m hurdles with

TIGERS END SPRING ON HIGH NOTE

BY JOSEPH W. GEX II
STAFF WRITER

The Bay High Tigers ended their spring football training with a modified and controlled game against Pearl River, Louisiana, on the road on Thursday, May 11. While nobody was keeping score, the Tigers did outscore Pearl River 28-20. Jalen Antoine scored two rushing touchdowns, Trevion Allen added a rushing touchdown, and Charles Richardson scored on a short run that was set up by two long passes from Xander Ladner to Antoine and Avery Harris.

The scrimmage featured junior varsity action first with a 40-play controlled atmosphere.

The Tigers' JV scored twice and kept Pearl River out of the end zone. Cameron Garcia threw a touchdown pass to Clayton Carver to highlight that scrimmage.

Bay High mentor Jeremy Turcotte had a particular focus during spring and that was a focus on the defensive side of the ball. The Tigers will have a retooled look on defense this coming fall from a defensive coaching staff all the way down to position groups. Turcotte commented, "The biggest thing coming out of the spring drills is we will have a new look on defense. We return a full house on offense meaning that everyone that will start for us this coming fall started for us at some point on the offensive side of the ball this past season. But, we are rebuilding the defense. This spring was a great chance for us, as coaches, to see who can play where on that side of the ball. Some guys are learning new positions while others still are getting on the field for the first time in a starting role. It has been a competitive spring but one that has been fun to watch. Our senior leadership has taken us to a new level on the field and in the locker room which is a refreshing thing to see. We have been very impressed with how our seniors are leading this team, taking time with younger players, and simply being good mentors. It really has been fun to see that develop."

Some players from the defensive side last season that are experiencing some new areas are Christian Key and Benny Williams who have seen action at linebacker and Trevion Allen at defensive back. The Tigers will welcome to the staff Chris Miller, David Tadlock, and former Mississippi State football and track athlete James Cochran. Miller is a 2017 SSC graduate and Tadlock is joining the Tigers from Greene County.

On the offense side, the Tigers will be led by their bell cow on the offensive line in Ziron Brown. He has 13 Division I offers to this point with more expected to come in during the summer as he has planned camps throughout the time away from school. Some of his offers include Missouri, Georgia Tech, Cincinnati, Houston, Southern Mississippi, Alabama-Birmingham, Louisiana-Lafayette, Louisiana-Monroe, Jackson State, Arkansas State, and Tulane.

There are 24 other schools that have shown interest in the talented offensive lineman. Junior colleges have shown interest in Benny Williams, Brandon Russell, Tyler Rose, and Kelvin Laneaux.

Other offensive bright spots include Xander Ladner returning at quarterback along with running backs Kelvin Laneaux and Jalen Antoine and wide receiver Tyler

Rose.

Turcotte continued. "Now that spring football has concluded, we are looking forward to getting started with our summer program of three days of lifting during the week, 7-on-7 with other schools along the Coast on Thursdays, and taking in more camps than we have in the past. It is shaping up to be a very busy but fun summer for the players. We can't wait to get it started."

The Tigers begin their season with a jamboree at Hancock on August 18 followed by the 2023 season opener at Resurrection on August 25 and their home opener against Saint Stanislaus on September 1.

Bay High basketball hires Singleton as assistant

Maurice Singleton

BY JOSEPH W. GEX II
STAFF WRITER

It may take some time, but things eventually come full circle. Take for instance the recent hire for Bay High basketball. The school district recently hired Maurice Singleton as an assistant basketball coach for the Tigers' program under head coach Kelton Thompson. However, there is more to the story than meets the eye as the two grew up playing basketball together and were teammates at Saint Stanislaus under former head coach Jay Ladner. The duo helped the Rocks advance to the 1996 state tournament which was the first of ten state tournaments for Ladner and the Rocks.

Bay High head coach Kelton Thompson stated, "We are very excited to have Coach Maurice Singleton at Bay High.

Kelton Thompson and Maurice Singleton as teammates for Saint Stanislaus basketball in 1996.

He will be a tremendous asset, not only to the basketball program, but to the district as a whole. Our goal is to surround our kids with quality, high character people and there is no doubt in my mind that with this hire, we did just that. Our relationship stretches all the way back to us being high school teammates. He made me a better player and a person back then, and I know he will have that same effect on the players and the coaching staff here at Bay High."

Singleton played with Thompson at SSC and then took his game to PRCC where he was a member of the 1998 state championship team for the Wildcats. He received a B.S. degree in Special Education from the University of Southern Mississippi and a Master's of Counseling Education from William Carey University. His previous coaching stops were at Hancock and Pass Christian. He and Thompson are members of the 1996 Saint Stanislaus basketball team that was inducted into the Great Wall of Rocks at Saint Stanislaus in 2008.

Rocks sweep Seminary and head to Class 3A South State diamond finals

BY JOSEPH W. GEX II
STAFF WRITER

The Saint Stanislaus Rock-A-Chaws continue to roll on the high school baseball diamond sweeping Seminary to advance to the Class 3A South State championship round against Clarkdale.

The Rocks (19-12) beat Seminary 9-0 last Tuesday behind a dominant pitching performance from Hill Gainey.

who threw 6 2/3 innings of shutout baseball allowing just three hits and striking out seven batters. SSC was led at the plate by Chesley Rhodes who was 3-for-4 with two singles, a home run, and three RBI. Others getting hits include Seth Farni, Gainey, Kyle Stegall, Hugh LeMasters, Tate Murphy, and Brady Wallis.

SSC head coach Brad Corley commented, "I am extremely proud of these players.

Hill Gainey pitched his tail off tonight and Heith Shinn caught an excellent game. We are doing a good job of getting runs on the board early and putting the opponent out early. We need to continue doing that to put pressure on the opponent."

On Saturday, SSC went on the road to beat Seminary 9-2 after inclement weather postponed the game from Friday. The Rocks got another gem of a pitching performance from LeMasters who threw four innings allowing two runs on two hits and fanning seven batters. Farni pitched the final three innings striking out six batters and did not allow a hit. At the plate, the Rocks were paced by Farni who smacked a two-run home run while LeMasters, Gainey, and Mossy all had two hits. Jeremy Mares and Wallis each added a hit.

The Rocks played Clarkdale in Game 1 of the Class

3A South State championship series on Tuesday evening. Game 2 will be held on Saturday at Clarkdale and, if necessary, Game 3 will be played at SSC on Tuesday.

The Rocks last reached the South State finals in 2015 when they went on to win the Class 4A state championship.

A BIG CATCH

Roy Henderson of Lakeshore on Friday caught, what he estimated to be about a 50 pound black drum, in Clermont Harbor. Henderson said he used cut mullet bait and said it took about 10-15 minutes to pull the fish in.
